

Summer Leadership Challenge Expectations

General

- Participants are expected to conduct themselves in an orderly and acceptable manner.
- Participants are expected to respect the rights of others and to respect the authority of the Staff and Instructors.
- Valuables should not be brought to Camp as Montgomery County Department of Recreation cannot assume responsibility for lost, broken or stolen items. This includes CD players, Mp3 players, I Pods, cell phones, etc.
- Dress standards will conform to public school dress standards, and inappropriate dress will not be accepted. Inappropriate clothing includes any which advertises or advocates the use of cigarettes, alcohol or other drugs, or which do not adequately cover the body. The participant may be asked to remove or cover the offensive clothing, if appropriate, or be sent home to change to more acceptable dress. Also, please be aware of what bathing suit your child wears to the water activities. If it is determined that the bathing suit is too revealing or inappropriate for the activity, the staff will ask him/her to wear a t-shirt or change completely. Please remember that you will be placed in positions where you will be leading younger participants and should model professional attire.

Conduct

- The use of any form of tobacco products is not permitted, and parents will be notified to pick up their youth if this occurs. Tobacco products and paraphernalia will be confiscated if found, even if not being used.
- The use or possession of drugs and/or alcohol at camp is strictly prohibited and will be dealt with in accordance with the law. Parents will be notified of any involvement and will be expected to pick up their youth immediately. Further action, including suspension or expulsion from the program without refund will be taken.
- The possession or use of weapons, including Swiss Army knives, manicure sets and toy guns are strictly prohibited and will be dealt with in accordance with the law. Parents will be notified and will be expected to pick up their youth immediately. Further action, including suspension or expulsion from the program without refund will be taken.
- Summer Leadership Challenge reserves the right to check all bags, backpacks or purses at any time.
- Physical abuse or harassment or the use of foul or abusive language will not be tolerated, and parents will be called to pick up their youth if this occurs.
- Parents will be notified of any serious misconduct and suspensions from Summer Leadership Challenge.
- Participants are expected to be on time for camp, again remember you are expected to conduct yourself professionally.
- Parents should be careful to make timely drop-off and pick-ups.
